October brings us to the annual club championships followed each day with a meal on us. We had 36 shooters return to vie for the title.

The offhand match winner was Michael Wilson (192-4x) as Rick Crawford won the sitting with 200-11x, the prone rapid fire match was won by Clay Hefner and Michael Carter won the 600 yard match. The aggregate match winner was Carter and Crawford was first High Master with new Master, Clay Hefner, winning his class, Michael Wilson paced the Expert class and John Sher won the combined Sharpshooter/Marksman class.

November will be the first 50 shot match of the fall schedule. Daylight savings time will end on Nov. 7 so it will be dark to begin the across the course match. Join us at the TSRA Service Rifle championship Oct. 23-25 at Camp Swift (match program/entry on www.tsra.com).

We'll be looking for you on the firing line.
Rick Crawford
